TIRED OF FIGHTING

I'm so tired of fighting,
so I started writing.
I've got a battle goin on inside myself,
and I put my faith upon a shelf.
I almost forgot who I am,
I almost forgot God has a plan.
What i am is proud and strong,
and with all God's love I will carry on.
It may seem I'm an emotional wreck,
but i know that God hasn't finished with me yet.

Being Clean, and now with that change,
all my thoughts have re-arranged.
Just for this hour I've got the power to demonstrate my inner will power.
I could give up my life for just one toke,
that's all it would take, and that's no joke.
So I wish I may, and I wish I might,
Just have some sobriety for tonight.
